

Year 4: Computing– Programming B – Repetition in games

Scratch – Block commands

www.scratch.com

An event to start your algorithm

A command of movement for your sprite

A command of direction for your sprite

A command of count-controlled repetition

A command of infinite repetition

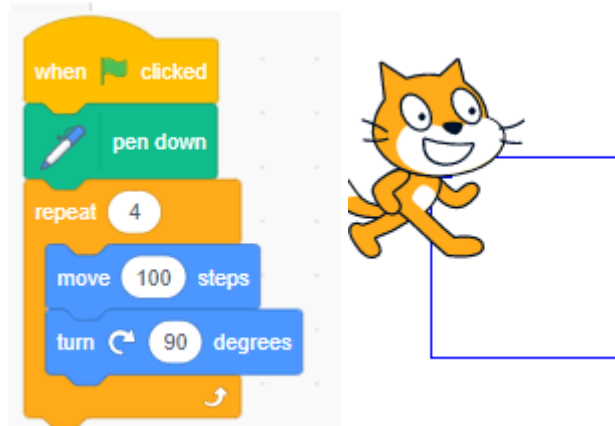

A command for your sprite to put the pen down and draw

Angles

Example code

Key Vocabulary

Commands: A specific instruction given to a computer program that tells you what to do

Algorithm: A sequence of instructions that are followed to complete a task

Debug: Correcting found errors

Repetition: Occurring again several times in the same way

Count controlled loop: A loop that only happens a number of times

Infinite Loops: A loop that continues forever

Sprite: A character on screen