Louis (Palm) and Alice (Spruce)

During lockdown, Louis and Alice started writing letters and drawing pictures for elderly people at a community centre in Leeds. They built relationships with some of them and even appeared on the news! Since then, every time they visit Leeds, they help out at the centre for a morning or afternoon. The visitors to the community centre really enjoy their visits, and Louis and Alice intend to continue visiting every school holiday.

Thank you, Louis and Alice, for generously giving your time and service.

On Sunday 17th March, Katherine played for Woking Hockey Club's under 12 Girl's Lions team in the Surrey Cup. Her team came second and have qualified for the South East Region finals in April, when they will play against teams from Kent and East Sussex. Well done!
